• LaTrobe University
• University of Melbourne
• Goulburn Murray Social Workers Group
• Ethnic Council of Shepparton and District
• Primary Care Connect
• The Advisor
• Shepparton Art Museum
• Avonlea Flowers | March, annually | The International Women’s Day Event was held on Thursday 8 March 2018. Approximately 300 community members attended.
The theme of the evening was Women by Design not Defined. A theme that was compatible with the 2018 Shepparton Festival theme.
The IWD event also fitted neatly with the broader national and international IWD campaign #pressforprogress maintaining a gender parity mindset which challenged stereotypes and bias, influencing other’s beliefs and actions, while forging the positive visibility of women and celebrating their achievements.
A Community Bus was provided to make the event accessible to all of community and the banner displayed on the bus designed by students from Moorcopna Secondary College.
The event included musical entertainment, a panel of speakers exploring concepts of gender equity, gender stereotypes and challenges they have overcome as female leaders and finished with sound bowl meditation. |

• LaTrobe University
• Kaiela Arts
• Her Place Museum | Ongoing | The Kaiela Arts scholarship program delivered from Advisory Committee Funding in partnership with Kaiela Arts in 2017. In 2017, the program supported 10 Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander woman to participate and build skills across a series of 4 workshops to become independent artists.
Relationship and engagement with Her Place Museum in preparation for the local exhibition. Her Place Women’s |
| Invite educational institutions to attend GSWCAC events | Museum Australia celebrates the social, civic and entrepreneurial achievements of all Australian women and their role in shaping the nation. During NAIDOC Week, the exhibition Honouring Indigenous Women, celebrating the lives and contributions of Aunty Fay Carter, Alma Thorpe and Paola Balla was hosted in Shepparton through a collaboration with La Trobe University's Shepparton campus.

A number of training/education opportunities promoted to the advisory committee and ‘friends’ network, including the Community Leadership and Fairley Leadership programs.

Chair Training delivered by Non Profit Training to the Advisory Committee and other local community members. This helped those in attendance to understand the role of the Chair, following agendas, dealing with difficult members etc. This training was attended by 21 local people, 20 of those being women.

Women’s Health Goulburn North East presented a snapshot of the female population within Greater Shepparton during the April 2018 meeting. Information presented was sourced from the 2016 Census and the Workplace Gender Equality Agency and comprises of data including; Demographics, Education, Employment, Leadership positions and Offence.

Gender Equity in Action training was provided by Women’s Health Goulburn North East in May 2018, the sessions aim was to provide participants with knowledge and understanding of key concepts relating to gender, equity and gender transformative practice. |
International Women’s Day was held on Thursday March 8, attracting 300 community members. A bus was provided to support transport from outlying areas, displaying a banner designed by Mooroopna Secondary College students, representing Gender Equity.

During the event attendees were able to mingle and network and enjoy music by the Goulburn Valley Grammar Orchestral Ensemble. Further entertainment enjoyed included the showing of “A Woman’s Place” by Sara Thomsen, singing by Clifton Boschetti and Singing bowl meditation by Lisa Shortridge.

The official part of the evening commenced with a Welcome to Country from Aunty Merle Miller, Yorta Yorta Nations and Opening by the Mayor Kim O’Keele, followed by comments from Charter Champion, Cr Seema Abdullah.

Members of the IWD workgroup worked with family members to acknowledge the work of Aunty Margaret Tucker and Nanny Nora Charles and their inclusion in the ‘Dana Djirringana Dunguludja Yenheala (Proud, Strong Aboriginal People) – Aboriginal Street Art Project presented by family members. The 2017 Yorta Yorta inductees on the Aboriginal Women’s Honour Roll were also acknowledged and guest Aunty June Atkinson spoke about these.

A Panel Discussion was held with the theme - Women by Design, not defined! facilitated by Kaz Gurney, panel members included Serana Hunt-Hughes, Alana Johnson, Zafia Baig and Aunty Merle Miller.

The presentation of the annual Women’s Award was an important part of the evening where all nominees were recognised and the winner Kathryn Sims was presented with the 2018 Award.

The Advisory Committee engaged a number of partners to support the event with significant funding and in-kind contribution from LaTrobe University, University of Melbourne, Goulburn Murray Social Workers Group, Ethnic Council of Shepparton and District, Primary Care Connect, The Adviser, Shepparton Art Museum, Avonlea Flowers.

An online survey was sent to attendees following the event;

Participant’s Feedback on content

The majority of survey participants responding to questions about content positively, using descriptions such as “fascinating,” “interesting,” “great,” “diverse,” “entertaining,” and “well organised.” A common theme throughout the feedback was the importance of listening to and “hearing from different women, feeling empowered and celebrated by women!”
